MODERN LANGUAGE PROGRAMS

FRENCH

B.A. MAJOR in FRENCH, a 30 credit-program consisting of 10 courses as follows:

- FR 125 – Intermediate French I
- FR 126 – Intermediate French II
- FR 225 – Intermediate French III
- FR 226 – Intermediate French IV
- FR 304 – Introduction to French Literature or FR 305 Introduction to Francophone Literature
- FR 315 – Aspects of French History and Culture or FR 316 – Contemporary France

and 12 credits of directed electives in French studies, as approved by advisor

B.S. MAJOR in FRENCH, a program leading to teaching certification, consisting of 36 credits (12 courses) in German, plus professional courses as follows:

French Courses:
- FR 125 – Intermediate French I
- FR 126 – Intermediate French II
- FR 225 – Intermediate French III
- FR 226 – Intermediate French IV
- FR 304 – Introduction to French Literature or FR 305 – Introduction to Francophone Literature
- FR 315 – Aspects of French History and Culture or FR 316 – Contemporary France
- FR 335 – French for Oral Expression
- FR 336 – Advanced French Composition.

and 12 credits of directed electives in French studies as approved by advisor

Professional program:
- EDTE 315, EDF 415, SPED 315, EDSC 425, EDSC 435, ML 429, ML 440, EDT 315 and RDG 440.

MINOR in FRENCH, a 18 credit-minor consisting of 6 courses as follows:

- FR 125 – Intermediate French I
- FR 126 – Intermediate French II
- FR 225 – Intermediate French III
- FR 226 – Intermediate French IV

and 6 credits of directed electives in French studies as approved by advisor

Students may take advantage of coursework offered through the Hartford Consortium for Higher Education, particularly if required courses in the language are not available at CCSU. For more information about the Hartford Consortium, please visit http://web.ccsu.edu/registrar/policies/hfdConsortium.asp