B.S. MAJOR in SPANISH: Specialization in Inter-University Spanish Language and Hispanic Cultures, a program leading to teaching certification, consisting of 36 credits (12 courses) in Spanish, plus professional courses, as above.

In order to complete this specialization, students must complete 12 credits at one of our Spanish-speaking partner institutions abroad during one semester. The 12 credits may be taken in language, culture and/or literature as appropriate to the student’s level of proficiency and upon recommendation of student’s academic advisor at CCSU. These credits may apply to the core requirements of the major.

Students may take advantage of coursework offered through the Hartford Consortium for Higher Education, particularly if required courses in the language are not available at CCSU.
